

Everlasting Parenting – Online Small Group

We have just begun a new online small group geared toward parents! Do you find it tricky to make it out to a small group in person? Well now you can participate in church life during the week whenever it's convenient for you & your family! It's called Everlasting Parenting, because (as the tag line says) what we teach our children ripples into eternity.

For parents of toddlers: Each week we'll post some information on what we did during Toddler Time so that you can reinforce the lessons during the week.

For all parents: at least every other week, if not more often, we'll post a quick teaching/commentary on a particular parenting subject that any of us might think about as we ride this roller coaster. In the future, as we get rolling along we'll ask guest posters to share with us their perspectives on parenting.

Here is the website: <http://everlastingparenting.nfvineyard.org/>

Bookmark it now :) You can check out the "About" page to read our goals/vision for this online small group. The Home page will have all the posts (in backwards chronological order). You can search by category or dates a well.

To really be a small group, we need members! Simply Register via the link on the bottom right of the page. Even if you don't have anything to say today, feel free to register now for the future. We highly encourage you to speak up & share with us all your comments on what works for you. We are all a family & like with any small group, we want to learn from each other! You can subscribe to the small group via email or if you regularly read blogs, the RSS feed option. (We recommend Google Reader).

So just take a second to check it out today & subscribe at <http://everlastingparenting.nfvineyard.org/>. Let's join together as parents as we raise our children together.
